

THE DAILY APPEAL.

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 18, 1857.

We are again indebted to Adams Express company for their paper.

Mr. McCausland, clerk of the St. Louis packet, Mr. H. Lowry, has our thanks for late papers.

Mrs. Dora Shaw is at present playing no engagement at the Nashville Theatre. She made her first appearance as Portia, and was very well received, as we learn from the papers of that city.

The work of laying of the walks in Court Square was commenced yesterday. The plan is wide, but we will not predict the taste of any one by attempting a description of them before they are finished.

THE CONVIVING AFFAIR.—The Mrs. Yocom, who exhibited her trusty "leyers" at Madison, Wednesday, was yesterday arranged at the Biscuit, and she and her husband are now in full possession of their home.

NEW WHALE-BAT AT NAPOLÉON.—We see in our exchanges notices of a launch at Raywood, Va., of a large whale-boat for Messrs. Johnson & Peay, of Napoleon, Ark. This very large boat is two hundred feet long, and fifty wide, and will store 1200 tons. One hundred and ten of oak lumber and 7000 pounds of iron. It cost $15,000. The whale is built. She is double bottomed, and has two solid and one framed bottom, running her whole length, fore and aft. Her sides are three inch white oak planks, and her timbers unusually large and well braced. Her sides are painted red, and her cabin is light and airy. The whale-boat is a fine specimen, and will find a good market.

THE STREAMS.—Ocean Spray left for Lake Lewisburg at 3 o'clock.

The steamer J. H. Loxon, Mr. E. C. Loxon, master, left for New Orleans, via St. Louis, on Saturday, Sept. 17.—The steamer Mississippi, Philadelphia, via Washington, D. C., was picked up by Capt. H. L. Morris, the steamer Mississippi, New Orleans, and the steamer Mississippi, New Orleans, were both due to arrive at the latter port on Saturday morning.

DISASTERS IN TENNESSEE.
